

Attention Associate Veterinarians: Join Our Team at Park Equine Hospital

Park Equine Hospital is seeking a skilled Associate Veterinarian with a focus on equine Sports Medicine to play a crucial role in optimizing the performance and well-being of equine athletes while maintaining and improving the overall health of our clients' horses. While a full-time commitment is preferred, we will consider part-time arrangements for the right candidate.

Excellence in the Heart of Horse Country

Nestled on a spectacular 26-acre property surrounded by Kentucky's iconic horse farms, Park Equine Hospital stands as Central Kentucky's premier boutique equine facility, providing comprehensive veterinary care and sports medicine services. In the heart of the world's most renowned equine region, Kentucky's diverse equine industry encompasses legendary thoroughbred farms, standardbred racing operations, sport horse facilities, warmblood breeding programs, quarter horse ranches, and competitive riding establishments. Park Equine Hospital serves as a trusted medical and performance partner to operations throughout Central Kentucky, supporting equine athletes across all disciplines and competitive levels.

Our comprehensive services include Surgery, Sports Medicine, General Hospital and Ambulatory Care, Advanced Diagnostics (including Hallmarq Standing MRI), and Alternative Therapies.

If you're seeking to grow and thrive in a close-knit, supportive environment while advancing your expertise in equine sports medicine, PEH is the perfect place to elevate your career while making a difference in the lives of equine athletes, their owners, and the future of equine performance.

As part of the Altano Group, we are leading the way in equine veterinary care, and that starts with our employees. We believe that taking care of our team members is the key to providing the best care to our patients. This position offers a competitive base salary, production bonus, emergency compensation, signing bonus, and relocation assistance.

When it comes to benefits, we've got you covered with a comprehensive package that includes traditional benefits such as health and ancillary insurance, retirement plan with match, professional liability insurance, membership and licensing dues, and paid parental leave. We also provide access to a self-care wellness platform, shared on-call schedule, and continuing education allowance.

Continue learning and growing in your career with Altano Academy, which connects you to a worldwide network of colleagues and specialists with whom you can collaborate through exchange groups, virtual and in-person CE events, and VetPD courses. Additionally, we provide access to many other educational and collaborative opportunities to support your professional development.
